Hi Friends,

We just received word that Habib is sick. So, we have to change the venue.

We are holding the seminar at the Mentorgarden located at 410 Precita Ave in San Francisco.

The times are the same. We begin at 11:00 AM. We will be serving both lunch and dinner at Norwich Street, which for those unfamiliar with the locale, is within easy walking distance.

The evening Zikr begins at 8:00 PM for those who just want to come for the evening.

If this disrupts your plans and you do not want to come, please let me know. If you have paid and do not want to come, we will refund your money. If you are not coming, please let me know by 12:00 pm Thursday, which is when I have to order food. Otherwise, we will assume we will see you there.

You will be receiving a flurry of emails from me since we need to communicate with a lot of people, some of whom said they might come but did not sign-up. So we need to do a shotgun approach and I'm sure you are on, at least, two email lists. Thus it goes.

Lot's of love,

Iqbal and Devi
