Beloved Family

In 1972 Vasheest Davenport, a tenor in our Sufi Choir and like myself, a direct disciple of Murshid Samuel Lewis, attended a concert at Project Artaud in San Francisco of a Master North Indian Classical Vocalist named Pandit Pran Nath.

Vasheest came back to the home we all lived in, the Garden of Allah, and swooned about the mastery and subtlety of the singer. Within a matter of days he had arranged for Pandit Pran Nath to come to the Garden of Allah and give a Raga Concert for our Sufi Choir.

It was at that concert at the Garden of Allah that I connected deeply with Pandit Pran Nath and he became my Music Guru and guided me in Raga Singing and Life through his passing June 13, 1996 and to this day.

Our Raga Concert April 20, 2019 is to honor Guruji and commemorate that lucky day.

*Much love and gratitude,
Shabda*

DIRECTIONS: From North/South Highway 101: Take the Paradise Drive/Tamalpais Drive Exit. (Turn right if exiting from the North; turn left if exiting from the South). The house is approximately 1.5 miles West from the highway. Once at the 4th intersection/stoplight, Magnolia Ave (to the North, Corte Madera Blvd to the South), Tamalpais Drive becomes Redwood Ave. Continue straight through the stoplight and after approximately 400 feet turn right onto Edison Ave. Here the road narrows considerably-please drive carefully. Edison Avenue winds up, making a sharp left, continues up, making another sharp left, then look for the 3rd house on the right. The stairway entrance (50 steps) up to house is just to the left of the dirt driveway and mailbox (112)

Let us know in advance if you would like a ride. Street parking on Christmas Tree Hill can be scarce. We will shuttle people up from the public parking area at Menke Park identified on the map. At this park there is a white gazebo to the right of the entrance. The park is located at the corner of Tamalpais/Redwood and Corte Madera Ave. If possible, please try to carpool. The walk up the hill from Menke Park is rigorous.

We will pick up those who have let us know in advance at 10:30AM, Inform us through gardenofallah@ruhaniat.org
