

Dear Ones,

I invite you to join a five-day Zoom workshop on the spiritual aspects of healing. Attendance is open to all called to the Sufi path. We will meet each Sunday morning from August 30th through September 27th, 9:30-11:00 AM PDT (UTC-7). The workshop will offer practices including virtualized walks, songs, chants, and readings based on the teachings of Hazrat Inayat Khan and Murshid Samuel Lewis. The Healing Ritual of Hazrat Inayat Khan will be studied in-depth and offered each day. The course presents an opportunity to become more aware of the nature of healing on the spiritual plane, and to expand one's capacity to be of service to those in need.

Please register for the course ASAP. Contact our registrar, Cindi, at 4Kaups@gmail.com to do so.

If you have served as a healing ritual assistant, and/or if you have been initiated as a conductor of the ritual, please let Cindi know. We may do breakout groups as part of the class or as a class addition for those who would like to participate in a more focused manner.

Another reminder and the Zoom link will go out by email . We have come into a healing time, and it would be great to see you there.

Stay safe. May Peace be with you.

Love,

Aslan
