Greetings Fellow Travelers on the Path!

Welcome to our new listserve!

This is where you will hear about upcoming events from now on.

I want to give a special Thank you to Karun Kevin Holsinger, who alerted us to the need to change groups before yahoogroups shut down, and who suggested this new platform! We had the yahoogroups since about 2008...It seems the transition has been smooth so far. Thank you so much, Karun!

Remember that you can update your settings to this group (receiving individual e-mail--every notice as it comes through, or a digest--weekly notices, etc.). We also have a calendar, and will try our best to keep it updated (though it's always best to contact the organizer if you're in doubt).
